

of the Government . . . according to any Federal Statute or the Constitution . . .” As addressed above, this assertion is incorrect.

Mr. Springer next claims that “Doc 518 is not in compliance with Judge Friot’s directive dated March 15, 2013 . . . [and that the United States’ response is] “unresponsive and confusing.” Mr. Springer’s Motion to Strike (Doc. No. 522) at 14. Again, Mr. Springer is in error. In the order dated March 15, 2013, the Court noted that in 271 pages of material Mr. Springer asserted 76 separate grounds for relief, many of which “would appear to have been previously litigated and adjudicated in the underlying criminal proceedings, or which could have been asserted in those proceedings.” Consistent with the Court’s direction, the United States summarized Mr. Springer’s voluminous submissions in a ten page responsive pleading sorting Mr. Springer’s 76 grounds for relief into twenty different issue categories, with a 53-page attachment identifying specifically where Mr. Springer’s asserted 76 separate grounds for relief had, or had, not been raised in the underlying proceedings.<sup>1</sup> The United States’ submission concisely lists, with supporting record citations, those grounds for relief that should be stricken or dismissed because they are procedurally barred.

<sup>1</sup> In his Motion to Strike, Mr. Springer asserts that he “has received no attachments . . .” Doc. No. 522 at 13. As indicated in the Certificate of Service, on September 9, 2013, the United States mailed both the preliminary response and the attachment to Mr. Springer at the Federal Correctional Institution in Big Spring, Texas. Nevertheless, on October 9, 2013, the United States resent copies of both the preliminary response and attachment, this time to Mr. Springer at the Federal Correctional Institution in El Reno, Oklahoma.

For the reasons stated above, the United States respectfully requests that the Court deny Mr. Springer's Motion to Strike (Doc. No. 522).

DATED: 24 October 2013

Respectfully submitted,

DANNY C. WILLIAMS, SR.

<sup>1</sup>On January 21, 2010, Thomas Scott Woodward was sworn in as the Attorney General's appointed United States Attorney for the Northern District of Oklahoma.

– Motion to Strike Doc. 276 and 277 (Doc. 285).

In these four motions, Defendant asserts many of the same frivolous arguments made in previous filings, including in Defendant's First Motion to Dismiss Grand Jury Indictment for Lack of Venue and supporting memorandum of law (Docs. 51 and 52), and in Defendant's Reply Regarding Opposition to Springer's Motion to Dismiss (Doc. 81). These arguments, previously rejected by the Court, include that the abolishment of the Internal Revenue districts prevented the United States from prosecuting him pursuant to Title 26, United States Code Sections 7201 and 7203. The Government has responded to Defendant's previous assertions, including in Docs. 42, 71, 80, 93, 276 and 277. The Court denied Defendant's motion to dismiss (Doc. 51) on July 1, 2009. Doc. 100. While a defendant may raise jurisdiction at any point while the case is "pending," Defendant has raised these arguments previously, and this Court has appropriately rejected them.

Defendant does raise what the United States believes may be new assertions, but these new assertions are frivolous to the point of absurdity. These arguments include that Thomas Scott Woodward "is not authorized to act as a United States Attorney" (Doc. 285 at 1-2), that the United States lacks standing to bring criminal charges pursuant to Title 26 (Doc. 284 at 2), that "[t]here are no United States Attorney Offices established by law that could qualify to be exercised outside of the District of Columbia" (Doc. 284 at 8-9), etc.

Further, to the extent Defendant's arguments go to jurisdiction as opposed to venue for this prosecution, Defendant's pending motions seeking a new trial (Doc. 262) and
